THE OMAHA CONFERENCE.

Its Closing Work and Its Important Features—Southern Outrages.

OMAHA, May 26.—The following is the most important work of the conference during the last days of its session:

The committee on state of the church endorsed the formation of a national Sabbath union. Its second report condemns the southern outrages, and demands that congress take suitable action to suppress these unjust and inhuman acts.

The following are the officers elected: Sanford Hunt and Homer Eaton were elected agents of the New York book concern, and Earl W. Burton, of Chicago, and Lewis Curtis, of Chicago, agents of the concern at Cincinnati.

The conference had a lengthy and heated discussion adopting constitution for the Epworth league. The words not intended to disturb other young people's societies were finally decided.

The last week of the conference began with Bishop Warren in the chair. The consideration of the report on the Epworth league was made for 10 o'clock. By a vote of 216 to 160 it was decided to adjourn on Thursday.

They Are for Free and Unlimited Coinage of Silver.

"The Democratic party of Nevada deprecates its unalterable devotion to bimetallism and to the free coinage of silver."

A TRIAL OF PATIENCE.

The Memphis Negro Editor May Carry His Calumny Too Far.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 28.—The Free Speech, a negro organ published here by J. L. Fleming, printed the following paragraph in this week's issue:

"Nobody in this section of country believes the thread-bare lie that negro men outrage white women. If southern white men are not careful they will over-reach themselves, and public sentiment will have a reaction, and a conclusion will be reached which will be very damaging to the reputation of their women."

The Commercial reproduced the above with this comment: "The fact that a black accuser is allowed to live and utter such loathsome and repulsive calumnies is a volume of evidence as to the wonderful patience of southern whites. But we have had enough of it. There are some things that the southern white man will not tolerate, and the obscene imputations of the foregoing have brought to a head the patience of the people of public patience. We hope we have said enough."

The matter caused considerable talk and some excitement and resulted in a meeting of prominent business men to consider it. Some were in favor of lynching Fleming at once, but cooler counsels prevailed, and it was finally decided to write him to keep out of his paper in the future or be prepared for serious consequences to himself.

This will be done as soon as he can be found. The white people here are fully determined to stand on no nonsense on this question. Fleming is one of the negro officials of Crittenden county, Ark., who were driven out on a charge of thieving practices two years ago.

Planning hearing of the intended visit of the committee, has fled the city.

WORK OF WHITE CAPS.

Negroes Whipped and Ordered to Work for Their Living.

TUNNEL HILL, Ga., May 27.—About twelve o'clock, at night, when all the citizens of Tunnel Hill were wrapped in sleep, 150 of the Owl Hollow band of White Caps came thundering into town, shooting, cursing and shouting.

They first proceeded to the house of John Myers, and forcing an entrance through a window, they entered the room on the bureau, and then commenced the hunt for Myers. They found him under the bed and drawing out their pistols to kill him.

Myers was instantly seized by the men and tied hand and foot. They asked him if he wanted to pray. He did not. The leader of the band then said it did not matter whether he did or not, as he was so lazy.

They then took the negro out to a tree and stripping him naked proceeded to whip him. They took him out and tied him to a tree and then proceeded to whip him.

They next went to a house where a blind negro lived. They took him out and tied him to a tree and then proceeded to whip him.

The next place the regulators came to was a negro woman's house. She was seized by the men and tied hand and foot. They asked her if she wanted to pray.

She did not. The leader of the band then said it did not matter whether she did or not, as she was so lazy.

They then took the woman out to a tree and stripping her naked proceeded to whip her.

CHICAGO DELEGATES.

WATKINSON AND CASTLEMAN HEAD THE TWO FACTIONS.

Some Other States That Have Acted the Past Week—The Work That Was Accomplished.

TRINITY, N. J., May 27.—The Democratic state convention met in Taylor's opera house here. Ex-Congressman McDonald of Hudson county, was made permanent chairman.

The platform was adopted with enthusiasm, delegates cheering and waving their hats. The tariff plank condemns the McKinley bill, lays claim to reciprocity as a feeble step in the direction of reform.

The balance of the platform that is of national importance is embodied in the following: "That with a full recognition of the responsibility of the Democracy of New Jersey towards the national Democracy, we name as our candidate for the presidency a statesman who will bring to a decisive step in the way of tariff reform and to emphasize our preference we selected our delegates to cast their vote for Grover Cleveland as long as his name is before the convention."

The delegates then adopted the policy of the free coinage of depreciated tender silver, and also further purchases of silver bullion under the act of Congress of 1890, and we believe that the whole matter of the use of silver as a money metal should be referred to the future concerted action of commercial nations.

Colorado's Convention.
DENVER, May 27.—At the meeting of the Democratic state convention, held here, T. M. Patterson, Dr. Paul J. M. Orman and Theodore O'Donnell were selected as delegates at large to Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Unless Blaine says positively he will not accept the nomination if it is tendered to him, I think the Minneapolis convention will choose him as its candidate for the presidency.

The delegates at large are John B. Castleman, Henry Watkinson, James A. McKenzie and W. C. Owens.

A Contest from Louisiana.
BATON ROUGE, La., May 26.—A final effort to harmonize the differences between the McEnery and Foster factions by a submission of the rival state central committees has just concluded, and has failed.

The delegates at large are John B. Castleman, Henry Watkinson, James A. McKenzie and W. C. Owens.

Hammond, was polished and tasteful in eminent degree. This was followed by a song from Mrs. Lodie Bowling. Prof. W. H. McKee delivered the address to the senior class and this was responded to by Mr. W. B. Bowling. This was followed by a song by Miss Ida Arnold. Next came an oration by Mr. A. D. Alexander, followed by a song by Miss A. E. Hammond. The addresses were rich in thought, cultured in delivery and very entertaining. It is needless to say that the music from the throats of Jacksonville's sweetest songsters were entrancing. These alone would have made the evening delightful.

At 11 o'clock supper was announced. Hon. Jno. D. Hammond presided as toast master. After discussing Gasser's delicious bill of fare for an hour or more the first toast of the evening was proposed. It was "Columbia" and was responded to by Prof. D. L. Earnest. This was followed by "Journalism," responded to by Mr. C. B. Haley; "Progress," responded to by Mr. G. P. McClurkin; "Law," responded to by Mr. B. P. Hammond; "Southland," responded to by Mr. W. B. Bowling; "Denocracy," responded to by Mr. L. W. Grant and "The Alumni" responded to by Mr. Jno. D. Hammond. It was long past midnight when the banquet closed.

It was an occasion long to be remembered and the time will be looked forward to with pleasure when the "Alumni" shall meet again around the social board.

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $55.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black thibets, fancy cassimers, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

Mr. A. K. Hawkes—Dear Sir: The pantoscopic glasses you furnished me some time since give excellent satisfaction. I have tested them by use, and must say they are unequalled in clearness and brilliancy by any that I have ever worn.

RABBIT TOWN.

News Notes from a Farmer Correspondent.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—There may be some people in other parts of the county that would like to hear from me over here, so I will write a few lines. We have had some very hard rains to fall the past week, which did considerable damage in some places.

Washed several bridges out of the road and gave the contractor a job.

We farmers have been getting along fine with our crops and have a fine prospect. Wheat and oats are only tolerable good. Wheat is not cut and will soon be ready for the thrasher.

We could live at home in peace if we were not bothered with politics and local issues. Now here comes the extension of the City Court trying to burden us with that tax and we oppose it all over. There is a good portion of our people that belongs to this Alliance and we divide sometimes, but when it comes to a thing we can see with the naked eye we all get together again. We all claim to be Democrats. The first Monday in August will tell whether we are or not.

We are inclined to believe third party candidates will come out at the little end of the horn. Candidates in other parts of the county can come to see us if they want to. Our candidates are all for Commissioner. We would like to see something else some time.

Read What Capt. James H. Savage Has to Say of Baker's Blood and Liver Cure

My brother, H. P. Savage, of London, England, has been afflicted with sciatica, or the worst form of rheumatism, for several years. He was unable to do any work, and his health was so bad that he was nearly blind. He had tried every remedy, but nothing would do him any good. He then tried Baker's Blood and Liver Cure, and after taking a few bottles, he was able to do his work again. He is now perfectly cured, and his health is as good as ever. He writes: "I am now perfectly cured, and my health is as good as ever. I am now perfectly cured, and my health is as good as ever."

WORK IN CONGRESS.

THE MOST IMPORTANT MATTERS CULLED AND CONDENSED.

Notable Events in the Legislative and Executive Branches of the National Government.

Monday.
WASHINGTON, June 13.—In the senate, the pension appropriation bill, with amendments, was reported back from the committee on appropriations and placed on the calendar. The bill introduced by Pfeiffer on May 28, to increase the currency and provide for its circulation, to reduce the rates of interest and to establish a bureau of laws, was taken from the table. In the house, on motion of Peck of Arkansas, a bill was passed providing that Indian children shall be declared to be citizens when they have reached the age of 21 years, and shall thereafter receive no support from the government. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 10 nays.

Tuesday.
WASHINGTON, June 14.—Owing to the death of Representative Spaulding, both houses of congress adjourned for the day.

Wednesday.
WASHINGTON, June 15.—In the senate, Mr. Peffer presented a petition from citizens of Kansas, asking congress to take some action in reference to the prevalence of lynching law. It was referred to the judiciary committee. In the house, on motion of Mr. Morrill, a bill was passed providing that the secretary of the treasury shall have the right to suspend the payment of any debt of the government when he deems it expedient to do so.

Thursday.
WASHINGTON, June 16.—In the senate, the first action was to provide for adjournment till Monday. Mr. Morrill then addressed the senate in opposition to the bill for the free coinage of gold and silver. The house went into committee of the whole on the tin plate bill.

Friday.
WASHINGTON, June 17.—The conference of the river and harbor bill reported a disagreement. The house adopted a resolution to insist on the disagreement, and the bill was again sent to the conference. The private claim bill, known as the Sibley bill, was then taken up. The point of no return was reached, and in order to escape from the snarl, Mr. Sibley proposed a recess, was taken until 3 p. m., the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension bills.

Saturday.
WASHINGTON, June 18.—The senate was not in session today. Upon motion of Mr. Morrill, the house adjourned until Wednesday, to allow the senate to catch up.

TWO DETERMINED DUELISTS.

The Charm That Has Attended One Life May Be Broken.

MARYSVILLE, Ky., June 20.—A shooting affair, which may result in the death of both participants, occurred shortly before midnight Wednesday night. Deputy Marshal W. A. Stockdale was wounded by Boey Price, and he in turn shot one of the assailants. Stockdale was struck just above the navel, the ball passing through the liver. It is thought Price was hit square on the chest, but the ball glanced down, striking the man's arm and lodging in the neck on the left side. The trouble was the result of an old feud. Just three years ago the officer shot Price while he was resisting arrest, and Price has had it in for him ever since. Stockdale seems to bear a charmed life, as he was shot seven times some years ago by George Hancock, and now carries six bullets in his body. Price has figured in several affairs of this kind.

Louisiana for the Stronger Man.

BATON ROUGE, June 20.—The delegates to the two conventions have gone home. All express themselves as well pleased with the result, and with the exception of a few from New Orleans, who opposed any terms by which harmony might prevail. The reason assigned by gentlemen from the country for this opposition is that the rules are so made as to take a back seat, because they represent nothing but themselves. Governor Foster expresses himself as delighted with the result. The delegation to Chicago have elected Mr. E. C. Johnston chairman. None of the delegates will stay how they stand; in fact, they all state emphatically that they have not made up their minds how they will vote. Mr. Johnston, from the sixth district, states that his vote will go to the strongest man in the race.

He May Have Been Lynched.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—A special to the press from 1 Jackson, Pa., says: John Spaulding, a Hungarian, stabbed Mrs. Hancock, his boarding mistress, twice in the breast, inflicting serious wounds. A crowd of the boarders of the house pursued him as he ran away. Three hours later Spaulding's body was found at the bottom of a deep slope, lying beneath a freight car. One of the men who was in a crowd that pursued Spaulding is alleged to have said that they caught the man, killed him, and threw his body down the slope. The coroner held an inquest, but it elicited nothing to show that the Hungarian was lynched.

A Murderer Pays the Penalty.

NASHVILLE, June 20.—John Wallace, murderer of Henry Cole, a peddler, was hanged near Jasper, Marion county. He fell from a gallows. His neck was broken. Wallace has been in prison for three years and was very sick. The gallows was erected fifteen miles from the jail in a valley surrounded by high hills, on which the spectators stood.

They Set Out for the Delegates.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., June 20.—A special train of mules to catch the Democratic convention of next week left here at 9 o'clock for Chicago. Flying colors and gay bunting tell the story of the special train and the delegates. The special train was composed of the Alabama, Maryland, Louisville and Nashville and Dixon.

A CLEVELAND CONFERENCE.

Mr. Whitney Is Assured of the Nomination of Cleveland.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Cleveland will be nominated on the first ballot, "as spoke the Hon. William C. Whitney of New York, in a very emphatic manner, as he emerged from the conference of the Cleveland managers, which had lasted from 9 o'clock until the early hours of the morning, in Mr. Whitney's private parlors at the Ritz-Carlton hotel.

The gathering was by long odds the most important one that has been held since the political hosts began to congregate to Chicago.

It was called for the express purpose of looking over the entire Cleveland line of battle, and of determining if any weak points existed.

The conference, before adjourning, decided that a number of those who took part in the deliberations should call upon the chairman of the national committee and get him to make a declaration as to the way his delegation intends to vote.

A studied estimate of the conclusion was arrived at that Cleveland had at least 450 votes, including those instructed and uninstructed delegates.

The various presidential candidates—dark horses and possibilities discussed—were Cleveland, Hill and Flower of New York; Boies of Iowa, Palmer of Illinois, Gray of Indiana, Gorman of Maryland, Carlisle of Kentucky, Morrison of Illinois, Campbell of Ohio, and Macmillan of Pennsylvania.

Cleveland, Hill, Boies, Gray, and probably Palmer and Gorman, will all have a following on the first ballot, but the others figure entirely as dark horses and compromise candidates.

THE WARRING IRISH.

League Delegates to Leave for Ireland to Work for a Truce.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—O'Neil Ryan, one of the three delegates appointed by the Irish National League to go to Ireland and work for a truce between the nationalists and the British, before the general assembly of the league, has come to New York, where he will meet George Sweeney and M. D. Sullivan, the two other committee men. The three will leave New York next Tuesday.

At a meeting here of prominent Irish Americans of Missouri, resolutions were unanimously adopted citing that if Irishmen did not unite at the coming elections all hope of local self-government for Ireland would be lost, and calling on the committee about to leave for Ireland to impress on the minds of the citizens of the mother country that if they would unite, they could depend on receiving increased assistance from their brethren in this country; but if they continued to sow the seeds of discord, all financial or other aid would be withheld.

Sympathy in Illinois.

DECATUR, June 20.—The Ancient Order of Hibernians of Illinois, is in session here, having adopted resolutions of sympathy for the Irish in Ireland in all their efforts for national independence, but advising the Hibernians of the state to withhold all assistance until a unification of the factions in Ireland is brought about.

RATE DISCRIMINATIONS.

The Cincinnati Lignor Dealers Want Protection in the South.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—A suit with great possibilities in its outcome was filed yesterday in the common pleas court by W. W. Johnson & Co., R. H. Finstrom & Co., and one or two other firms engaged in the coal trade, to restrain the Queen and Crescent and the Louisville and Nashville railroad companies from carrying out effect their new rates of freight which they are endeavoring to impose. The suit is in restraint of the Queen and Crescent and the Louisville and Nashville railroad companies from carrying out effect their new rates of freight which they are endeavoring to impose. The suit is in restraint of the Queen and Crescent and the Louisville and Nashville railroad companies from carrying out effect their new rates of freight which they are endeavoring to impose.

The selection of the candidates dragged all along. Van B. Prather was finally nominated for auditor; W. H. Butler, treasurer; J. G. Blair, superintendent of public instruction, and Judge Stephen H. Allen for associate justice of the supreme court.

The latter nomination was a knock-out blow to the Republican party. Judge John Martin, a straight Democrat, was nominated for congressman at large by acclamation. The convention then adjourned sine die.

NEGRO LYNCHERS THWARTED.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 20.—A special to the Times from Kansas City says: James Holland, a negro real estate dealer, nearly lost his life, in the hands of a mob. Holland is a member of the firm of Holland & Jones, both negroes, who advertised just before the election that they were prepared to give every negro applicant a claim each in exchange for $10. Hundreds answered the advertisements, came to the new country, paid their money, but of course got no claims. The indignation of the negroes had been intense, and they took Holland from his office and were about to hang him to a telegraph pole, when his friends intervened and saved him. He was placed in jail, around which the negroes are swarming, vowing vengeance.

Fitzsimmons Is Rather Chummy.

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—Just as he was leaving for New Orleans, Bob Fitzsimmons was handed a telegram from President Noell of the Olympic club, New Orleans, asking him if he would meet Joe Choinski in that city in September for $15,000 a side. His reply was as follows: "I will not go out of my class again to fight any body except Corbett. I will fight Choinski at 158 pounds, and at no other weight. If Corbett defeats Sullivan, I want to meet Corbett. I wouldn't fight with Sullivan, though."

MURDER ON A TRAIN.

A Prominent Lawyer of Mississippi Was the Victim.

MEMPHIS, June 20.—Ex-Chancellor John Bright Morgan of Hernando, Miss., one of the best known lawyers and jurists in the south, was shot and killed by Henry Foster of Hernando. The killing occurred in an incoming Illinois train at Alden Station, six miles north of Hernando.

John Morgan was en route to the Chicago convention, and, knowing that he would be on the train, Foster boarded it at Alden.

One ball penetrated the right ear, the other the head, and the other entered the left side and passed through the body. The judge died without a groan.

Foster told the conductor to go ahead, and that he "had killed a man, but he had to do it."

When the train reached here, Foster surrendered to Justice of the Peace Holaday, but as the latter is a warm partisan of the Foster faction, it is feared that he will escape.

The difficulty originated in a quarrel between a lady and Foster. Foster and Judge Morgan's son had a difficulty two weeks ago and the judge hearing of it, suddenly equaled Foster, laying him out.

Pretty But Heartless.

COLUMBIAS, O., June 22.—Vill. Deff. was seriously injured on South Main street while riding a bicycle. A pretty young girl dashed into him with a pair of horses, and whirled him from his bike across the street and over the iron fence into Dr. Bell's yard. His head was frightfully cut and his body badly bruised. After the accident the girl heartlessly exclaimed: "Oh, drive on!"

ANOTHER AWFUL STORM.

Southern Minnesota Suffers from Its Fifth Storm—Many Lives Lost.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 18.—A special to the Journal from Mankato, Minn., says: One of the worst disasters that ever visited southern Minnesota, occurred between 5:30 and 6 o'clock. Every report that comes in is more serious than the preceding one. At least forty or fifty lives are lost. The extent of the country swept is greater than ever before known in the history of the state.

A section of the storm.

Starting at Jackson, on the Southern Minnesota road, a funnel-shaped cloud swept eastward and passed away south of Wells.

It passed some miles northwest of Sherman, and it is reported that it then struck the district school house, in which was the teacher and eighteen scholars. The building was demolished, and the teacher and eighteen scholars were killed. A station three buildings were destroyed and several people were injured. Ludon was visited, and many houses were torn from their foundations. A large group of trees were completely uprooted. The storm passed on eastward, destroying farm barns, and in fact everything in its path. At Wells, store fronts were blown in and other damage done.

Four miles south of Minnesota Lake five farm houses and their outbuildings were completely destroyed. Four people were killed. Railroad section men suffered severe injuries.

Much damage was done south of Wells, and it is reported that forty to fifty were killed south and west of that village.

As most of the damage was done in the country, reports are slow in coming in, but it is believed that it was the worst storm ever reported in south Minnesota.

A Storm in Iowa.

WAUCOMA, June 18.—Northeastern Iowa was visited by a cloudburst. Water fell in a deluge for hours. The streets were converted into rivers and many bridges were washed away. A big washout occurred on the Milwaukee road between Fort Atkinson and Calmar. About 200 feet of track is gone and 500 feet of track is washed out near Hampton and Iowa. The railway train service is a standstill. The country is completely flooded. Later news reports the washout of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern railroads track near West Union and a long strip between Oskema and Decorah. It will require at least a week to get things in shape for trains.

One in Wisconsin.

DEKOR, June 18.—The severest rain and hail storm known for several years struck this section. The inundation of the Chicago low land, threatens great damage.

THE THIRD PARTY TICKET.

Kansas Completes a State, After a Slow Drag.

WICHITA, June 18.—After nominating L. D. Welling, of Wichita, for governor, the People's party convention selected W. D. Vincent for lieutenant governor by acclamation. Mr. Vincent declined to run, and there was no attempt to hold her position and seize her share of fortune's gifts.

The selection of the candidates dragged all along. Van B. Prather was finally nominated for auditor; W. H. Butler, treasurer; J. G. Blair, superintendent of public instruction, and Judge Stephen H. Allen for associate justice of the supreme court.

The latter nomination was a knock-out blow to the Republican party. Judge John Martin, a straight Democrat, was nominated for congressman at large by acclamation. The convention then adjourned sine die.

A FATAL COLLAPSE.

The Elbow Work Under the Licking Creek Bridge Gives Way.

NEW YORK, June 16.—A dispatch from Cincinnati published here says: The false work of the new bridge over Licking river, between Covington and Newport, Ky., fell and thirty workmen were drowned. The false works broke on the morning of the 15th inst. and a bigger man than Benjamin Harrison to block our onward march. Look at you will, the rising south is now in a position to hold her own, and seize her share of fortune's gifts.

Another Section Fell.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—Another section of the Licking River bridge fell. Five men were working underneath at the time it gave away but escaped without injury.

Two more bodies were taken out of the wreck at forenoon but have not been identified.

Met a Horrible Death.

COLUMBUS, Ga., June 16.—Louis Byard, the son of Mr. Thomas Byard, of Phenix City, met with a terrible death in front of his father's house on River Row. He had climbed into a china tree to procure some berries for his pop-gun, when his foot slipped and he fell to the ground. Under the tree from which he fell was a large pile of lumber, and he was killed by the impact of the lumber on his head. He only lived a few minutes.

Nearly Five Hundred Ballots.

ANNISTON, Ala., June 18.—Leroy F. Box was renominated for judge of the seventh judicial district in the convention at Talladega on the 47th ballot. For 473 ballots the vote was unchanged, standing Box, 28; Kelly, 26, and Cobb 14. Judge Box served two terms as judge of the seventh district, and was re-nominated for the third. He was opposed by Richard B. Kelly, a young attorney of this city, and ex-Governor Rufus W. Cobb of Shelby county.

Democrats Don't Need It.

ST. PAUL, June 16.—It has been definitely announced by Marshall Campbell, chairman of the Minnesota Democratic central committee, that there would be no fusion between the Democrats and Alliance men, either on the electors or state officers. He said the Democrats had made a poll of the state recently, and were so confident of getting a plurality this fall that they didn't care to make any alliance.

Murderer Shot to Death.

NOGALVES, Ariz., June 18.—Francisco Altamirano, the noted bandit of the border, and the murderer of a half dozen or more men and women, was shot and killed in Muisur, Sonora, by another Mexican.

AGAINST REID.

THE PROTESTS THAT COVER THE PRESIDENT'S TABLE.

The Situation Grows So Serious That the Republican National Committee Is Called In.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—It is stated here that the President's desk is loaded daily with telegrams from private unions and labor organizations of every kind, containing vigorous protests against the nomination of Whitelaw Reid, and warning the President that unless his name is stricken from the ticket it will be cut by the labor organizations of the country.

In view of this alarming condition of things the President has laid the matter before his cabinet, and the result is that the Republican national committee has been called to meet here early next week, for the purpose of taking Mr. Reid's name from the ticket and the substitution of some name not yet agreed upon.

It goes without saying that Vice President Morton, who feels greatly humiliated by the treatment accorded him by the Republican national convention will not permit his name to be used, and Harrison and his friends are greatly exercised over the situation.

BRIGHT, AND GROWING BRIGHTER.

An Editorial That Is 'Telling' With New Points and Interesting Data.

ATLANTA, June 18.—The following editorial appeared here in the Constitution, and has created a degree of favorable comment that is only occasionally accorded to a newspaper article:

The progress of the south since Appomattox has been a steady one of advance. In 1865 we had no money, no credit, no hope. Many of our cities were in ashes, our plantations were wrecked, and our railways were worn out.

Today we have a land of peace and plenty, 40,000 miles of railway, and our average percentage of increase per capita wealth for the decade ending in 1890 was 100 per cent more than that of New England or the central west. We are drawing capital and we are making capital. Ten years ago we had 233 national banks; now we have 750. The percentage of the increase of our cotton exports is about five times the combined gain at the other parts of the country.

Six days ago we showed by reliable statistics that we have fewer failures, with smaller liabilities in the south, than in other sections. We showed, too, that in development and production of our resources, in agriculture, in commerce, in the growth of our refined manufactures made a total during the past five years of over 17,000 new industries.

Now, take this fact—since 1865 our assessed property has increased $1,094,000,000 in value, according to the reports for 1890.

When a section can accomplish so much in twenty years, and with only battleships and mines for sets—the outlook ought to be bright. It is bright, and growing brighter. If we make the fight on the right line we can smash the Republican party this year, and even if we fail, it will take a bigger man than Benjamin Harrison to block our onward march. Look at you will, the rising south is now in a position to hold her own, and seize her share of fortune's gifts.

A FATAL COLLAPSE.

The Elbow Work Under the Licking Creek Bridge Gives Way.

NEW YORK, June 16.—A dispatch from Cincinnati published here says: The false work of the new bridge over Licking river, between Covington and Newport, Ky., fell and thirty workmen were drowned. The false works broke on the morning of the 15th inst. and a bigger man than Benjamin Harrison to block our onward march. Look at you will, the rising south is now in a position to hold her own, and seize her share of fortune's gifts.

Another Section Fell.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—Another section of the Licking River bridge fell. Five men were working underneath at the time it gave away but escaped without injury.

Two more bodies were taken out of the wreck at forenoon but have not been identified.

Met a Horrible Death.

COLUMBUS, Ga., June 16.—Louis Byard, the son of Mr. Thomas Byard, of Phenix City, met with a terrible death in front of his father's house on River Row. He had climbed into a china tree to procure some berries for his pop-gun, when his foot slipped and he fell to the ground. Under the tree from which he fell was a large pile of lumber, and he was killed by the impact of the lumber on his head. He only lived a few minutes.

Nearly Five Hundred Ballots.

ANNISTON, Ala., June 18.—Leroy F. Box was renominated for judge of the seventh judicial district in the convention at Talladega on the 47th ballot. For 473 ballots the vote was unchanged, standing Box, 28; Kelly, 26, and Cobb 14. Judge Box served two terms as judge of the seventh district, and was re-nominated for the third. He was opposed by Richard B. Kelly, a young attorney of this city, and ex-Governor Rufus W. Cobb of Shelby county.

Democrats Don't Need It.

ST. PAUL, June 16.—It has been definitely announced by Marshall Campbell, chairman of the Minnesota Democratic central committee, that there would be no fusion between the Democrats and Alliance men, either on the electors or state officers. He said the Democrats had made a poll of the state recently, and were so confident of getting a plurality this fall that they didn't care to make any alliance.

THIRD PARTY PEOPLE.

Montana Wants Free Coinage and New Election Law.

BUTTE, Mont., June 17.—The state convention of the "People's party" completed its labors here, adopting a platform and putting an electoral and state ticket in the field.

The platform favors the free coinage of silver, the election of a president and vice president by popular vote; the restriction of immigration; demand that the land grant of the Northern Pacific railroad in Montana be declared forfeited on account of the failure to construct within the specified time, and wants the national government to maintain reservoirs for the irrigation of arid lands, and to provide homes for the people free from the control of monopolies.

Delegates to the Omaha convention were selected, and Colonel Edward F. Bozeman was nominated for congress, W. M. Kenney for lieutenant governor, and Harvey Coulton, of Butte, for lieutenant governor.

Want Weaver for President.

TACOMA, Wash., June 17.—The People's party in the state convention last evening elected delegates to the Omaha convention. The platform declares in favor of General Weaver for president.

LOOKS LIVELY FOR OMAHA.

That Third Party Convention May Be More Than She Can Clamber.

OMAHA, June 16.—Mr. V. O. Sprickler, who has been deputized by the present in the place of H. E. T. abecker, president of the National Executive Committee of the People's party, is preparing for the convention to be held here July 24. He said: "The people of Omaha must do some hustling by the next three weeks, or there is grief in store for us. We have secured accommodations for a little over 6,000 people, and there will be 10,000 here from this State alone."

Every state will send big delegations, and Kansas and Iowa will pour immense crowds in upon us. Mr. Williams, chairman of the state committee, says that they will have ninety-two delegates, and will bring an army of sightseers. They want to arrange for a small hotel for their exclusive use.

Indiana is in the same fix. A gentleman was here from that state, who said that the delegates from that state will be about fifty from that congressional district alone. This convention will bring from 30,000 to 50,000 people to Omaha, and they must be provided for."

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

A convention is hereby called to meet at White Plains on Saturday the 2nd day of July 1892, for the purpose of nominating a Senator to represent the Seventh Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Calhoun and Cleburne. In said convention Calhoun will be entitled to 16 delegates; Cleburne 6 delegates.
S. D. G. BROTHERS, Chairman.

Kolb's convention nominated J. O. Turner of St. Clair for Superintendent of Education, but Mr. Turner refused to accept a place on the ticket.

Every young man in the county who has any hopes of the future should stand by the Democratic party. Men are to-day taking political steps they will regret bitterly the balance of their lives.

If the straight Democrats of Calhoun have to-day any difficulties it is because some of them threw away the fruits of a well earned victory of the party for trashy local issues.

Mr. L. C. Ramsey, business manager of the Alliance Herald, was nominated by Kolb's convention for Secretary of State, but Mr. Ramsey was too true a Democrat to accept. He procured a proxy from one of the delegates from Macon county and went into the regular Democratic convention at the State House and cast his vote for Gov. Jones.

REUNION.

Surviving members of the grand old 30th Ala., Reg. Pettus' Brig., wish to have a reunion at Jacksonville Thursday Aug. 15th 1892.
Genls. Shelby and Pettus will be invited and expected to be present.

Wiley Wright and others of Co. "B" 30th Ala.

The meeting of Alliance men here Wednesday under call of J. M. K. Guinn, resulted in nothing that the public can find out more than that a county executive committee was appointed, but whose names are at present kept secret from the public. All the real business of the meeting was transacted by a committee which would not report in open meeting. The attendance was good and much speech-making was indulged in on the subject of the coming county convention. The prevailing sentiment was against nominations. The speakers were 6 to a man against the extension of the city court and it was this cat in the meat tub that led them to distrust the convention.

Grover Cleveland was nominated for president on the first ballot by the Democratic National Convention at Chicago amid great enthusiasm. This too without a single vote from his own State, delegation from New York going solidly to Hill. This attests the immense popularity of Cleveland throughout the Union. The platform is a good one. It speaks out on the silver question in a manner to meet the views of the farmers; denounces trusts and combines; pronounces for reduction of tariff taxes and throughout is in sympathy with the masses and is Democratic. Stevenson, of Illinois was nominated for Vice-President on the first ballot.

We will publish the platform in full next week.

The Kolb delegation from Bibb county was declared on a contest before the State Executive Committee to be entitled to seats in the regular Democratic State Convention. Three of these took seats in the regular convention at the State house and Mr. Adams bolted. Among those who staid with the party was Jim Brown.

The convention called on Brown for a statement of his parting with Kolb.
From his place on the chair Brown told his story as follows:
"I told Captain Kolb that I would follow him to the jumping off place. When I came down here and the Captain unfolded his plans to me, I could not see it. I told him that I could not go beyond the democratic lines and having reached the lines Captain Kolb left me and I staid in the party."

MRS. COCHRAN'S REPLY

To Judge Crook's Letter of a Recent Date.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—I see a letter signed Emmett F. Crook, dated May 31st, 1892, published in all the county papers involving the truthfulness of statements that I have made about his taking my house from me, and upon which I lived and claimed at the time he did it and which he in his letter denies.

I am the widow of George S. Cochran deceased, who was a Confederate soldier under Gen. John T. Morgan, 51st Alabama Regiment, and who was stricken with paralysis in the Confederate service, just before the surrender, from which he never fully recovered. And on the 23rd of August, 1880, he homesteaded and moved on 80 acres of land, paid the fees and received his papers from the government, which I still hold and of which the following is a copy:

Application No. 1922. Certificate No. 1922. HOMESTEAD. Receiver's Office, Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 23rd, 1880. Received of George S. Cochran, the sum of Seven Dollars, being the amount of fee and compensation of the Register and Receiver for the entry of the 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Section 4, in Township 16, South of Range 7, East, under Section 2280, Revised Statutes of the United States.

PAUL STROHACK, RECEIVER.

My husband moved upon this land, built a house, stables and crib, enclosed and put in cultivation 7 or 8 acres, planted out an orchard, and died on it in 1882, leaving myself and two daughters and two little sons. We continued to live on it and make our support until 1888. When I was trying to get a negro name Cal Dobbins off of my land, Mr. Emmett F. Crook employed lawyers to defend the negro and keep him on it (he can't nor won't deny this fact). Mr. Emmett F. Crook told W. A. Leatherwood that he had a patent to the Cochran land and for him to tell the negro Cal Dobbins to stay on the land and that I would have to get off of it.

I went to Anniston and consulted attorneys as I was ignorant of the law, but was refused advice without a cash fee. I had no money and went home and asked my neighbors for advice. Esq. Haynie told me that as Crook had papers from the government to the land, that I might get into trouble if I didn't get off, and I packed my little household goods and put them in a neighbor's house, took my children and walked to Anniston and rented a room to shelter us. I made application to the land office department to regain my land from Crook. But the department notified me, in January 1892, that patent had been issued to Crook and the government could do nothing. I have brought suit in the City Court of Anniston for the recovery of the land. I am informed that Crook has sold our home to Suggs for $1200 and we, the widow and orphans of a Confederate soldier, by his unrighteous acts are homeless.

I lived from soon after the war in 7 1/2 miles of Mr. Crook while he lived and merchandised at Alexandria. I have been in his office on business since he has been probate judge and have known him several years. I certainly intimated to him that I had a claim to the land when I brought suit against this negro Cal Dobbins, who he advised to stay on my land, and employed lawyers to defend the negro before Esq. Haynie.

How or by what crooks he undermined our rights and took from us (the widow and orphans of a dead Confederate soldier) our only home and support, he must answer; I can't.

His insinuation that I had been inveigled into making a false statement, is false. I have made this and all other statements about this matter voluntarily and without solicitation and not in the interest of any man, and ask the county papers to publish this letter as they published Crook's letter that attempted to brand my statements as false.

Not content with publishing my statements as false, he has been writing private letters about this matter to negroes in Anniston.

SUSAN J. COCHRAN, Widow of Geo. S. Cochran, dec'd. June 15th 1892.

A VERY SALTY LETTER.

Judge Emmett Crook Hits Straight From the Shoulder.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA., June 21, '92. Ed. Rep.—In reply to a letter in Sunday's issue of the Hot Blast, over the signature of one Mrs. Susan J. Cochran, but from the pen of a "shister lawyer" in the city of Anniston, I have this to say: That I am not in the habit of fighting a woman, or a so called man who hides behind the petticoat to do his dirty work, and shield himself from the condemnation of a just public. I do not write this letter because I think any man in Calhoun county, who would stoop to think, would believe the utterances of Mrs. Cochran through her vile mouth piece and penman, this slanderer, inhuman monster, compared with whom J. A. Murrell would be a saint. A "shister" of land grabbing propensities, who would suborn a witness to swear certain facts that would aid him in winning a suit, would not cavil at obtaining the signature of an irresponsible old woman to a slanderous charge against the private character of a fellow man.

The first question to consider is, why has Mrs. Cochran waited from October 1887, the day on which I bought this land from the Government, and on which I went into possession of it, until June 1892, to bring her grievances before the public? For five long years she has been quiet, but just as soon as I am a candidate, and this campaign opens, she hops into print, through her "petticoat man," and claims that I have wronged her.

In the year 1878 or 1879 I purchased this land from the original entry man, took his deed, signed and acknowledged in the presence of witnesses and an officer. When I went to take possession of my land for which I had paid my money, I found, to my surprise, that it belonged to the Government, and the man from whom I bought it had never perfected his title. I gave the matter no further thought until in October 1887 I mentioned the fact to Mr. J. L. Swan who was attending to the public land entries in this county. Mr. Swan examined the land book in my office, and such maps and evidences as he had, and said there was nothing showing any subsequent entry, but that the land was still vacant, and under a recent act of Congress I could purchase the land at $1.25 per acre. I made cash entry application for the land, enclosed my application, deed and money to Hon. J. G. Harris, Register of the Land Office at Montgomery, and received cash entry certificate dated October 10th, 1887.

Now, every body knows that just as long as there is any outstanding claim or entry, uncancelled on any government land that it is impossible for any body else to enter the same land until the outstanding entry is cancelled and cancelled. Now, do you believe that the United States would have sold me or any body else this land with Mrs. Cochran's claim outstanding if it was good or uncancelled? It could not and would not have done so. I am reliably informed that George S. Cochran's entry was cancelled before he died, and the certificate published with Mrs. Cochran's letter was worthless. If her entry was cancelled the land was subject to entry by the first applicant. I never heard of her claim, and in all sincerity I knew nothing of such persons as Mrs. Cochran or her husband: I will obtain from the Land Office the fact as to this entry, when it was cancelled, and by whom, and all about it, and the public shall have these facts.

If there was any wrong done Mrs. Cochran it was by the Government in cancelling Mrs. Cochran's certificate, about which I knew nothing, and in selling me the land already entered and not subject to entry, do you believe the Government would do such a business? No; George S. Cochran's entry had been cancelled for some reason satisfactory to the Government and the land placed upon the market again for entry, and the certificate paraded before the public in Mrs. Cochran's letter had no more validity than a piece of brown paper, and I will show these facts by Official document from the Land Office as quickly as they can be obtained. I should not be held responsible for the act of the Government in selling me this land when I say emphatically that I know nothing of any claim on it by any body else, and had no part or lot in having Mrs. Cochran's entry cancelled. The Records at Washington will show who did this and the reason for it.

Why did not Mrs. Cochran come to me when she heard that I had bought the land, and talk the matter over with me. I am more than willing to have the matter sifted from bottom to top, and if Mrs. Cochran is entitled to the land I would like to see her have it and she can have my assistance in the matter at any time. This whole matter could have been satisfactorily adjusted if she had made her claim known to me and shown that she was entitled to the land. I have never done her or any body else at wrong, and will not if I know it. The object of this assault upon me is not to right the wrong of Mrs. Cochran but purely political, and by parties who care nothing for her, but hope by false insinuation and accusations to reap personal benefit from circulating this slander. The woman is not at the bottom of this prosecution. It is too plain, it shows upon its face, and then see who is having the publication made, and who is sending hundreds of copies of papers containing the charge all over this country. Now, Mrs. Cochran can certainly have no unkind feeling towards me, for she knows that she has never presented her claims to the property to me, and that I am an utter stranger to her. Now, this petticoat fellow has made Mrs. Cochran say in her letter, that she lived on this land from 1882 to 1888 when she moved to Anniston. Read the following affidavit of a responsible and disinterested man:

STATE OF ALABAMA, I, W. J. Calhoun County, I, Pearce, a citizen of said county and State, do hereby certify that Mrs. S. J. Cochran was living on lands belonging to Daniel C. Pearce and W. J. Pearce on the 8th day of July, 1887, and that we brought suit against the said S. J. Cochran, of possession of said land on which she was then living, in the Circuit Court of said county on the 8th day of July, 1887, and obtained a judgment for said lands and cost, for which a writ of habere facias possessionem and execution was ordered. The said S. J. Cochran remained on our land until the latter part of 1888 or 1889, when she moved to the city of Anniston.

Given under my hand, this 4th day of June, A. D. 1892.

W. J. PEARCE.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, an acting justice of the peace in and for said county, this 4th day of June, A. D. 1892.

J. S. KELLY, Justice of Peace, Calhoun Co.

How does this testimony compare with the letter written by the petticoat man and signed by Mrs. Cochran? I did not employ Mr. Willett or any other attorney to defend Cal Dobbins, but I wrote him to go to Esquire Haynie's court and represent me, and look after my interest. I did not know the nature of the suit, or who was bringing it. Mr. Willett wrote me the next day after getting my letter that he had seen the attorney on the other side (Mrs. Cochran says on account of her poverty she could not get legal advice, which you see is false, as she had an attorney, if it was her bringing the suit against Dobbins) and that said attorney told him, E. D. Willett, that he had learned since bringing the suit that he was misinformed as to the facts, and had no cause, hence would have it dismissed, and that he (Willett) need not go out to the Court ground.

I never heard of this old woman being connected with the suit, never paid any attention to it any way. I knew that I had purchased the land from the Government, and that if there had been any claim on the land the Government would not have sold it to me.

Now, if Mr. E. D. Willett is to be believed, Mrs. Cochran did have a lawyer, and if she did have a lawyer then she has spoken falsely, and according to the old maxim, "false in one thing, false in all," must apply to her statement, or rather the statement over her signature, because she says positively that it was her bringing the suit against Dobbins, and that she had no lawyer because she did not have the cash to pay.

She poses as a poor old woman; if so, who is paying the newspapers for publishing this slander? Certainly not this poor old woman. Mrs. Cochran told a gentleman residing in the city of Anniston, who interviewed her about this matter, that a certain man in Anniston brought the letter to her, and asked her to sign it, that "they" wanted to publish it, and that it should not cost her anything. Who are "they" who want to publish this letter, and what was their object in publishing the letter? Do "they" think the people of Calhoun county are so ignorant as not to be able to see the handwriting on the wall? If so, "they" will awake some fine morning at a day not far off to reap the reward, Belsazar-like, of their vile and insidious work.

I don't know what advice this old woman received from other persons, but I do know and most emphatically assert, that she never in her life received one word from me either in person or through another: I never saw her in my life to know who she was. She may have known me; she may have been in my office on business. If so, she never made herself known, but I make the assertion that she was kindly treated if there, and just as politely waited upon as if she had been dressed in silks and satins, as that is my way of doing business. I treat everybody alike, as the people all over the county, white and black, will bear record.

If there is any suit pending in any court in relation to this land, no notice has been served upon me, and I know nothing of it, and I venture the assertion that if such is the fact it was brought through the instrumentality of "they" and of a very recent date to simply give some credence to this slanderous charge. I said Mrs. Cochran had been inveigled into signing the letter, that it might be used for campaign purposes, and I repeat it, and ask, is there a sane man in Calhoun county, who, after reading her letter, will doubt my assertion? If so, then he will have to doubt her declaration also, as I have above given you the fact, that she said the letter was "brought to her," and she was "asked to sign it," that "they" wanted to publish it, and it would not cost her anything. What was the object in paying so much money to publish a letter, just on the heels of a campaign, about a matter which she made to say is pending in the courts of our county. She does not give you one single reason how or wherein I have committed any wrong, even if her story was true.

Her letter is a tirade of abuse because the Government sold me a piece of land, and she wanted it. Does anybody believe that she would have so gracefully moved on of the land if she had been living on it, and had a claim to it? I have shown you by the affidavit of Mr. Pearce, and he is sustained by the circuit court record, that she was not on my land from the year 1887 to this time and I tell you positively she was not. Which will you believe? I never have written one word about Mrs. Cochran to white or black, except in answer to letters asking me about this slander, and if she knows of any letters received from me by a "negro" or anybody else, she is at liberty to publish the same, provided she will publish the entire letter, and I ask any one holding such a letter to give it to "they" for publication. I am willing to have any and all letters written by me published, so go ahead "they" with your publications. I think, however, it is a courtesy due me from the newspapers, that they make "they" sign their own names to the publications, and not fight from ambush.

Mrs. Cochran said to the gentleman referred to as having interviewed her on this subject that she once employed Messrs. Knabe & Scott, land agents at Montgomery, to get this land for her, sometime before I bought it, and they told her that she had no claim to it and could not get it, and she dropped the matter until the suit was brought against Dobbins. "Polly talks too much." "They" had better drill her a little more.

Mrs. Cochran has told her tale, and produced nothing to sustain her. I give you my side of the question, and some proof, and have a great deal more subject to your inspection, but which is too voluminous, and would cost too much for me to have published.

Now, I must leave this matter to the sober judgment and consideration of my fellow-citizens, and I only ask that you go to Suggs' cooling where this old woman says she lived so many years, and from the good people of that neighborhood find out who Mrs. Cochran is, how she stands for truthfulness, what kind of a life she has led there, and then refer to the citizens of Alexandria where I was born and lived most of my life, and the citizens of Jacksonville, among whom I have spent my official life, and see what life I have lived, how I stand for truthfulness, and what my moral and christian standing is, then choose which you will believe. Remember this old woman is but a figure head, and the guilt of "they" in thus using this poor old woman for their nefarious purpose is just as criminally wrong as the slander attempted upon me. I feel just as certain, as I do that the sun will rise tomorrow morning, that the people will place their seal of condemnation upon such vile methods, and will so express their condemnation at a day not far distant.

Thanking you for your patience, and expressing my regrets at this appearing before you in vindication of my character, I am,

Your obedient servant,
EMMETT F. CROOK.

The Force Bill.

During the National Republican convention which nominated Benjamin Harrison for president, the Force Bill was a live issue.

The prominence which was given to this measure in the opening speech of the temporary chairman of the convention, and its elaboration and affirmation in the platform are unmistakable evidences of the Republican party.

The character of this speech of Fasset's has the full appreciation of the public. Comments upon it show that it is regarded as the key note, and the Baltimore Sun well analyzes it:

"Our pledges have been kept," said Fasset, "all save one. Our honor is pledged to continue the contest for a free and honest ballot until this question is settled." The party that debauched Indiana and New York in 1880, 1881, and 1888 with bribes, and intimidated the employees of mails and factories into voting its ticket is anxious, it seems, for "a free and honest ballot"—in the South. There it is resolved to employ force and fraud is necessary to acquire the franchise. The tariff and other Republican ideas have been realized, but the Republican party still has a mission. Mr. Fasset tells the convention, "until every citizen, white or black, can approach the ballot-box with absolute security and have his vote counted." What he means, of course, is until a law is passed putting Congressional and other elections in the South under the control of Republican Federal officials who will count in Republican candidates and count out Democrats. The convention vociferously applauded Mr. Fasset's declaration, and applauded again when ex-Speaker Reed reiterated the announcement that the force bill is to be the first item in the party's legislative program. To harry the South and turn back its growing tide of industrial prosperity—such is the aspiration! It is a melancholy circumstance that a great party should have the ruin of a section of the Union for its sole remaining stock in trade.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—On the evening of the 21st, from 8 to 11 o'clock, it was the good fortune of the writer to attend the Mythological play presented by the students of Oxford college and other young people of the town of Oxford, under the management of Prof. and Mrs. Dodson. It was gotten up for the benefit of the Pelham monument fund and thus Oxford takes the initiative in raising money for this praiseworthy and patriotic purpose.

The large chapel was crowded to its utmost capacity and as a result of the evening's work, we are informed that Mrs. Dodson holds about ninety dollars ready for delivery to the monument association when it is organized.

The exercises were opened by a brief but exceedingly appropriate address by Dr. B. D. Williams on the subject of Mythology.

Excellent instrumental music was furnished by Mrs. Draper and Miss Annie Robertson on the piano while fine vocal solos and duets were rendered by Mr. and Miss Norton and Miss Kate Robertson.

All the young people who took part in the play acquitted themselves as professionals rather than amateurs, and the universal verdict of the large audience was that the enjoyment each derived from the entertainment was worth fourfold the small admission fee, besides the instruction received.

In this play the triumphs and disasters, pointments, loves and hates, rivalries and ambitions of the gods and goddesses were faithfully delineated. The appearance of each in proper costume, sceptre and insignia, as represented in ancient history, sculpture and painting, presented an instructive object lesson to the audience and displayed a thorough knowledge of Mythology on the part of the managers.

The next day, June 22, diplomas were given to eight young ladies and ten young men—eighteen in all—the largest graduating class in the history of the college.

The former read essays and the latter delivered orations worthy of the hundreds of encomiums from the intelligent people present.

As it is impossible for the writer to do justice to the occasion. He closes with the hope that some correspondent will give you a full account of the graduating exercises.

All honor to Mr. Dodson for his grand work as an educator of the youths of Alabama.

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black (hibets, fancy cassimers, clay's worsteds, ctrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.
